[90A] Section 13.7

Insert after section 13.6—

13.7 Minister must publish map and notify interested parties of Aboriginal Land Rights claims

- (1) The Crown Lands Minister must maintain a map showing the location and extent of each claim for land under the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983, section 36 that has been—
 - (a) made but not finally determined, and
 - (b) granted in whole or in part.
- (2) The map must be—
 - (a) published on the Department's website, and
 - (b) publicly accessible and searchable.
- (3) The Crown Lands Minister must, within 30 days after a claim is referred to the Crown Lands Minister under the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983, section 36(4)(c), ensure that—
 - (a) the map is revised, and
 - (b) the following are notified of the claim—
 - (i) the local council of the local government area within which the land is located,
 - (ii) any occupier of the land.
- (4) To avoid doubt, the Crown Lands Minister must ensure that, on the commencement of this section, the map includes all claims for land that, immediately before the commencement, have been made but not finally determined.
- (5) In this section—

Crown Lands Minister has the same meaning as in the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983, section 36.
