- (k) to prohibit the unauthorised use of any brand, stamp or mark prescribed as a meat inspector's mark;
- (l) to empower a meat inspector to seize meat that is being dealt with contrary to the proposed Act and to provide for any person claiming the seized meat to complain of the seizure to a justice of the peace and for his complaint to be dealt with by a stipendiary magistrate;
- (m) to provide for the appointment of persons as licencing inspectors with functions with respect to the construction and equipment of licensed premises and licensed vans;
- (n) to confer on meat inspectors and licensing inspectors a power of entry in respect of premises or vehicles which are being used in contravention of the provisions relating to licensing or are being used for the storage of accounts, records, books or other documents relating to the slaughtering of animals and to other matters;
- (o) to prohibit the sale of meat for human consumption unless the animal from which it came was slaughtered at a licensed abattoir or slaughter-house or was brought from interstate in accordance with requirements prescribed by the proposed Act and unless the meat or carcase has been inspected by a meat inspector and passed as fit for human consumption;
- (p) to prohibit the sale of meat for human consumption or the sale of processed meat for human consumption if it has been condemned by a meat inspector as unfit for human consumption;
- (q) to prohibit the sale of meat as animal food or the sale of processed animal food if it has been condemned by a meat inspector as unfit for use as animal food;
- (r) to require certain grades or classes of meat to be branded with the prescribed brand;
- (s) to require any meat brought into the Metropolitan Abattoir Area, other than meat for export or meat to be canned for export, to be taken to an inspection place and to be inspected;
- (t) to prohibit the sale of meat in the Metropolitan Abattoir Area unless it has been inspected by a meat inspector in that area;

- (u) to constitute the New South Wales Meat Industry Authority so that it shall consist of 11 members of whom—
 - (i) one, who shall be a person engaged in the production of animals for meat, shall be appointed as chairman;
 - (ii) one shall be an officer of the Department of Agriculture;
 - (iii) one shall be a representative of the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board and of councils which operate abattoirs;
 - (iv) one shall be a representative of persons, other than the Board or councils, who operate abattoirs;
 - (v) one shall be a consumer representative;
 - (vi) one shall be a representative of persons engaged in the sale of meat;
 - (vii) five shall be elected by meat producers;
- (v) to define the functions of the Authority with respect to the regulation and control of the meat industry in New South Wales;
- (w) to provide for the constitution of the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board by the proposed Act instead of by the Meat Industry Act, 1915;
- (x) to provide that the Board shall consist of three members of whom—
 - (i) one shall be appointed as chairman;
 - (ii) one shall be appointed as representative of persons employed in the meat industry;
 - (iii) one shall be appointed as the representative of persons engaged in the production of animals for meat;
- (y) to define the functions of the Board with respect to the conduct of abattoirs and saleyards and with respect to trading in animals and meat;
- (z) to empower the Board to recover fees for services provided by it;
- (aa) to require the Authority and the Board to keep proper accounts and records and to provide for the audit of each body's accounts by the Auditor General;
- (bb) to empower each body to invest in government securities or in a manner approved by the Governor or prescribed;
- (cc) to authorise each body to obtain temporary accommodation by way of overdraft or by way of an advance from the Treasurer;
- (dd) to empower each body to borrow money for its purposes under the proposed Act;
- (ee) to make provision for determining the capital indebtedness to the State of the Board;
- (ff) to empower the Authority, with the approval of the Minister, to appoint a manager of any abattoir in respect of which moneys are owing to the Crown if the abattoir is being conducted in an inefficient manner or the provisions of the proposed Act or regulations are consistently not being complied with;

- (gg) to provide for the constitution of central killing areas and to prohibit the introduction or sale of meat into or in those areas except in accordance with the regulations or unless it came from an animal slaughtered at a licensed abattoir;
 - (hh) to empower the Governor to suspend certain functions of councils that may be performed by the Authority or a meat inspector;
 - (ii) to empower the Authority to recover the costs and expenses incurred by it in executing a direction or order made under the proposed Act or regulations that has not been complied with;
 - (jj) to empower certain persons to destroy animals that it would be cruel to keep alive;
 - (kk) to make certain provisions with respect to the admission of matters in evidence; and
 - (ll) to make other provisions of a consequential, ancillary or minor character.

PART III.

INSPECTIONS AND REGULATION OF THE MEAT INDUSTRY.

DIVISION 1.—Meat Inspectors.

17. (1) Such meat inspectors as may be necessary to perform functions of meat inspectors under this Act shall be appointed and employed under and subject to the Public Service Act, 1902.

Meat Industry.

(2) The Director-General may, with the approval of the appropriate employer referred to in section 30, on such terms as may be arranged, make use for the purposes of this Act of the services of—

- 5 (a) a person employed under the Public Service Act, 1902, who is not an officer or employee of the Department of Agriculture; or
- (b) a person employed by or under the control of a public or local authority constituted by or under an
- 10 Act.

18. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a meat inspector has the functions conferred or imposed on him by or under this Act. Meat inspectors' powers generally.

(2) A meat inspector shall, at such times and at such
15 places as the Director-General may direct, perform the functions conferred or imposed on meat inspectors by or under this Act, and may not otherwise perform any such functions.

(3) Nothing in this Division authorises a meat
20 inspector to perform any of his functions in or on any portion of any premises that is used for residential purposes without the permission of the occupier thereof.

19. (1) A meat inspector may—

- (a) enter and remain in or on any licensed premises or licensed van; Powers of meat inspectors.
- 25 (b) inspect any such premises or van and all appurtenances and appliances therein;
- (c) inspect any slaughter animal or the meat of any animal, or any processed meat or processed animal food, in or on any such premises or van;

Meat Industry.

- (d) open any package found in or on any such premises or van that he suspects on reasonable ground to contain the meat of any animal or any processed meat or processed animal food;
- 5 (e) without payment take samples or specimens of the meat of any animal or any processed meat or processed animal food found in or on any such premises or van, and have them analysed; and
- 10 (f) as required by or under this Act, classify, brand, stamp or mark or direct the classification, branding, stamping or marking of meat in or on any such premises or van.

(2) Where a meat inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that there is in or on any unlicensed premises (other than a retail butcher's shop or restaurant) or unlicensed vehicle the meat of any animal or any processed meat or processed animal food that is (whether or not after the application of a manufacturing process) intended for sale, he may exercise his powers under this Act in relation to the premises or vehicle and the meat, processed meat or processed animal food as if the premises or vehicle were licensed premises or a licensed vehicle.

20. (1) A meat inspector may, at any abattoir, slaughter-house or licensed knackery, give such directions as he thinks proper with respect to the slaughtering and associated procedures at the abattoir, slaughter-house or licensed knackery, including directions for the hygienic and humane management and operation of the abattoir, slaughter-house or licensed knackery.

(3) Any liability arising under the guarantee given by subclause (2) of this clause shall be discharged out of money provided by Parliament.

(4) The charge created by subclause (2) of this clause shall not prejudice or affect any power of the corporation to sell, convey, lease or otherwise deal with, free of the charge, any property vested in it.

10 5. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, any money which the corporation is authorised to borrow may be borrowed by a loan raised, wholly or in part, in such places outside New South Wales as the Governor on the recommendation of the Treasurer may approve, and may be negotiated and raised in any currency. Raising loans in any country.

15 (2) Any such loan may be raised wholly or in part by the issue of debentures, bonds, stock or other securities in any form and contain any term, condition or provision permitted under the law of the place where the loan is raised and the corporation may establish and conduct in that place registries relating to the securities
20 issued in respect of that loan.

(3) The corporation may, in respect of any such loan, agree that a sinking fund shall be established and controlled at such place and in such manner as may be found necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case and, where any sinking fund is so established, the provisions of clause 2 shall apply with regard to that loan
25 only in respect of the amount, if any, the repayment of which is not provided for by the sinking fund established under the agreement.

(4) In connection with the raising of any loan under this clause, the corporation may enter into such agreements as it thinks
30 fit with respect to the form of the debentures, bonds, stock or other securities referred to in subclause (2) of this clause, or for the sale of those debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or the granting of an option to purchase those debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for services to be performed by any person in 35 Australia or in any other part of the world in connection with that loan or with the issue, management and redemption of or otherwise with respect to those debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, and any such agreement may be upon such terms and conditions and may contain such provisions for the giving or receipt of consideration
